

ISSE 2015 Confirms European Data Protection Supervisor Giovanni Buttarelli

To Provide Opening Conference Keynote

EDPS to present at ISSE 2015 as new EU Data Protection Regulation is set to come into force

Information Security Solutions Europe (ISSE 2015), Europe's leading independent, interdisciplinary security conference and exhibition, today announced that European Data Protection Supervisor (EDPS), Giovanni Buttarelli, will deliver the opening keynote of the two-day event. This year ISSE 2015 is co-locating with the Open Identity Summit, and will take place on the 10th and 11th November at the Hotel Palace Berlin, Germany.

Executive Director of event partner EEMA, David Goodman comments: "With new EU data protection regulation set to come into force at the end of this year, the ISSE and this prestigious keynote from the EDPS will provide delegates with an enviable and timely opportunity to understand all of its implications and exactly what it means for their respective organisations."

Giovanni Buttarelli was appointed European Data Protection Supervisor on 4 December 2014 for a term of five years by a joint decision of the European Parliament and the Council, having previously served as Assistant EDPS from January 2009.

Before joining the EDPS, Mr Buttarelli worked as Secretary General to the Italian Data Protection Authority, a position he occupied between 1997 and 2009. As a member of the Italian judiciary, with the rank of Cassation judge, he attended to many initiatives and committees on data protection and related issues at the international level.
